

Summary Feedback

Basildon FRCR 2B A to ZEE Courses: Rapid Reporting for FRCR Exam Part-1 (25th July 2020) Delivered By: Dr Priti Tare

Summary Points:

- Rapid Reporting for FRCR exam Part-1: 6 hour teaching time
- Total Attendees: 502
- Feedback received from participants of 15 Countries: (including Kenya, Sudan, Kuwait, India, Sri Lanka, Egypt, Oman, Pakistan, Nigeria, Iraq, Qatar, Saudi Arabia, Turkey, Malaysia and UK).
- Total feedback received: 122 (UK: 44, Overseas: 78)

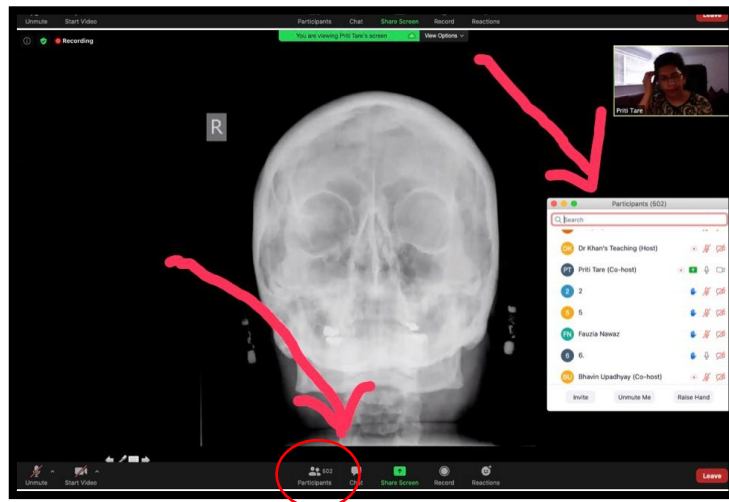

Testimonials

- This was a very well organized and well-structured class. Especially the attitude of the teacher towards students is very encouraging. Looking forward to more classes from the presenter (Egypt).
- Very nice session (UK).
- Very valuable session (India).
- Good experience (UK).
- Very well presented session with good overview of key points. Dr Tare was a very pleasant teacher to have (UK).
- Excellent delivery and slides. Thank you for the time and dedication (UK).
- Awesome stuff! Thank you! (UK).
- Keep up the good work. Learning so much on this platform (India).
- Thank you. It means a lot. Thank you for taking time out of your weekend and rest time to teach us without any cost. Thanks (Pakistan).
- Very well presented session with good overview of key points. Dr Tare was a very pleasant teacher to have (Pakistan).
- Great work! Keep it up! (UK).
- Every word in the lecture was valuable (Kuwait).
- GREAT knowledge/Teaching (Pakistan).
- Some concepts. Approach to RR.
- Finally understand Avulsions within the digit, Le Fort fractures and Unstable cervical fractures.
- Systematic approach for every view, known what you expect to see is helpful, systematic learning (Egypt).
- Proper description of fractures, relevant theory points, check list (UK).

5)

Course Number: 11 (Rapid Reporting for FRCR Exam Part-1)

- Classification of various types of fractures, identification of normal variants and revision of mechanism of fractures(Pakistan).

=====XX=====XX=====