- This teaching course (100h) has been nothing short of fantastic for my 2B preparation. I struggle to understand why Dr Khan does this in his own time for free; he is clearly a better human than me! You are a fantastic radiologist and excellent teacher (UK).
- Excellent teaching sessions Dr Khan Sir. The whole faculty team was superb. Your extreme efforts and energy, passion will guide many of us including me. The course was very comprehensive and exam oriented. It also will help in day to day reporting (India).
- An excellent course which has been by far one of the best radiology courses and Best radiology training I have had since the start of my radiology training.
